Book by Barbara Marlowe and Teeba Furat Marlowe
Thursday, December 19, 2019 at 7:00 p.m.
Main Library Auditorium

_A Brave Face_ is the story of a woman who moved mountains to provide medical care for an Iraqi girl badly burned during a roadside attack. Barbara Marlowe’s determination to fight for her future daughter highlights the way love can reach across both cultures and continents. Marlowe overcame many obstacles to bring Teeba to the US for medical treatment—and to ultimately offer her a home. Books will be available for sale and signing at this event.
Abandoned Cleveland
Book by Jeffery Stroup
Thursday, January 16, 2020 at 7:00 p.m.
Main Library Auditorium
Today Cleveland is experiencing a renaissance. However, it’s not difficult to find decaying reminders of the city’s dramatic rise and fall. It is these relics of the city’s past that Jeffrey Stroup strives to capture and preserve through the images in this book. Stroup’s passion for photography and love of history have led him to explore abandoned buildings throughout the country. Books will be available for sale and signing at this event.

Conditioning Your Mind To Fuel Creativity
Book by Jennifer Yaros
Thursday, February 20, 2020 at 7:00 p.m.
Main Library Auditorium
Jennifer Yaros shatters preconceived notions about what creativity is and means. She explains it is not a talent only some people are born with and instead is an innate skill everyone possesses. Practice is the only way to nurture and grow it. Through a series of unique and divergent learning activities, you’ll learn how to prepare your body, thinking and ego to be more creative. Books will be available for sale and signing at this event.

Inside the Soldiers’ and Sailors’ Monument

Presentation by Timothy Daley

Wednesday, October 23, 2019 at 7:00 p.m.

Main Library Auditorium

Despite original public disapproval, the Cuyahoga County Soldiers’ and Sailors’ Monument endures into its second century with a dazzling facelift, making it downtown’s most impressive historical sight. Timothy Daley, the monument’s executive director, will review the construction and history of this structure, including a description of its exterior statuary, the meaning of its interior bas-relief panels and the symbolism of its windows and decor.

Cuyahoga and Its Burning River

Presentation by Western Reserve Historical Society

Wednesday, November 13, 2019 at 7:00 p.m.

Main Library Auditorium

The Cuyahoga River plays a central role in Cleveland’s history. Its terminus in Lake Erie was chosen by Moses Cleaveland as the location for the capital city of the Western Reserve. It was both used and abused, catching fire at least a dozen times from industrial waste runoff. Marking the fiftieth anniversary of the most notorious blaze, a speaker from the Western Reserve Historical Society will review the history of Cleveland’s crooked river.

Dundee: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow

Presentation by Carrie Sowden

Wednesday, December 11, 2019 at 7:00 p.m.

Main Library Auditorium

The Dundee, a 214-foot schooner barge launched in 1892, sank about fourteen miles off of Cleveland on September 11, 1900. Since the discovery of the sunken vessel in the ’80s, it has become a popular scuba diving site. What can archaeology teach us about the wreck? Carrie Sowden, Archaeological Director of the National Museum of the Great Lakes will discuss the history, loss and archaeology of the shipwreck and its preservation for future generations.

Lincoln’s Assassination: The Complete Story

Presentation by Mel Maurer

Wednesday, February 19, 2020 at 7:00 p.m.

Main Library Auditorium

Most Americans know that President Abraham Lincoln was shot and killed by John Wilkes Booth. Far fewer know the full story of the plots that led to his assassination on April 14, 1865. Booth did not act alone; he was the leader of a small band formed to kidnap the president and hold him for ransom. A frequent speaker on historical topics, Mel Maurer will review the details of Booth’s planning and the capture and punishment of those involved.
WEEKDAY DOCUMENTARIES

ReelAbilities Film Festival: Family & Hope
Thursday, September 19, 2019 at 6:00 p.m. (52 minutes)
Main Library Auditorium

Join us for a double feature and discussion as part of ReelAbilities Cleveland 2019 series. The Lakewood Public Library will be featuring two short films touching parenting, kids and disability. ReelAbilities is the largest film festival in the U.S. dedicated to promoting awareness and appreciation of the lives, stories and artistic expressions of people with different disabilities.

The Unconditional (2018)
Directed by Dave Adams
The Unconditional is an unflinching look into the lives of two undiagnosed special needs kids and their parents as they grow older with no answers in sight. Heath and Mariel have two young children that have been through the NIH Undiagnosed Diseases Program. Each child has had their full genome sequenced without answers or a diagnosis. Without an official diagnosis they receive less government funding for their therapies, and are forced to apply for grant funding to supplement significant out of pocket costs.

Unstuck: An OCD Kids Movie (2017)
Directed by Kelly Anderson
Kids, teens and adults with Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD) are trapped in a vicious cycle of worries, intrusive thoughts and rituals. While loved ones are desperate to help them, defeating OCD takes time and specialized therapy. Unstuck is an award-winning short film that explains OCD through the eyes of young people. As the group of resilient kids and teens roadmap their process of recovery, the film inspires viewers to believe it is possible to fight their worst fears and beat back OCD.

Won’t You Be My Neighbor? (2018)
Directed by Morgan Neville
Presented by Cleveland Kids’ Book Bank
Tuesday, September 24, 2019 at 6:30 p.m. (94 minutes)
Main Library Auditorium

In his beloved television program, Mister Rogers’ Neighborhood, Fred Rogers and his cast of puppets and friends spoke directly to young children about some of life’s weightiest issues in a simple, direct fashion. While the nation changed around him, Fred Rogers stood firm in his beliefs about the importance of protecting childhood. In celebration of National Literacy Month, join Cleveland Kids’ Book Bank co-founder Judy Payne to discuss the film.

Apollo 11 (2019)
Directed by Todd Douglas Miller
Presented by Lake Erie Nature & Science Center
Tuesday, October 8, 2019 at 6:30 p.m. (94 minutes)
Main Library Auditorium

A film fifty years in the making, Apollo 11 takes us straight to the heart of NASA’s most celebrated mission. Crafted from a newly discovered trove of 65mm footage and more than 11,000 hours of uncatalogued audio recordings, we’re able to experience those momentous hours in 1969 when humankind took a giant leap into the future. In celebration of World Space Week, join Planetarium Specialist Bill Reed of the Lake Erie Nature & Science Center to discuss the film.

Main Library Auditorium
Now the top-selling female artist in the world, Japanese artist Yayoi Kusama overcame impossible odds to bring her radical artistic vision to the world stage. After working as an artist for over six decades, people around the globe are experiencing her installation Infinity Mirrored Rooms in record numbers. Joining us to discuss the film will be Sarah Paul, Associate Professor and Chair of Sculpture + Expanded Media at Cleveland Institute of Art.

Data Mining the Deceased: Ancestry and the Business of Family (2017)
Directed by Julia Creet
Presented by Greater Cleveland Genealogical Society
Tuesday, January 7, 2020 at 6:30 p.m. (56 minutes)
Main Library Auditorium
More than half of North Americans are fascinated by genealogy and feel invested in their family histories. The genealogy industry is arguably the largest historical enterprise in the world and one of the largest data mining operations, driven by big religion, big business and big technology. This documentary explores the industry behind the exponential intensity of genealogy. A member of the Greater Cleveland Genealogical Society will join us to discuss the film.

Body and Soul: An American Bridge (2017)
Directed by Robert Philipson
Presented by The Lakewood Music Collective
Tuesday, February 25, 2020 at 6:30 p.m. (58 minutes)
Main Library Auditorium
Of all the cross-cultural encounters in American popular music, none has been so prominent and conflicted as the relationship between African Americans and American Jews. Body and Soul: An American Bridge focuses on this cultural knot through the early performances of the jazz standard “Body and Soul,” one of the most recorded songs in the jazz repertoire. A member of local music lesson studio The Lakewood Music Collective will join us to discuss the film.

Chronic, or ongoing stress, has been proven to have a negative impact on health. The physiologic stress response is a factor in five of the six leading causes of death in the United States. Improve your health and reduce your risk of chronic disease by learning how to turn off your chronic stress response. Join Functional Medicine Health Coach Kevin Heine as he reviews simple, practical stress management techniques to relax the body and clear the mind.
Cyber Conflict and Geopolitics
Presentation by Karl Kaltenthaler, PhD
Thursday, September 12, 2019 at 7:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Cyber conflict is a new and continually developing threat that can include foreign interference in elections, industrial sabotage and attacks on infrastructure. Is the United States prepared to respond to such threats? After a brief video, Karl Kaltenthaler, professor at Akron University and Case Western Reserve University, will lead a discussion and help answer the complex questions surrounding cyber warfare.

The Rise of Populism in Europe
Presentation by Javier Morales-Ortiz, PhD
Thursday, September 26, 2019 at 7:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Mass migration and the problems associated with it have directly abetted the rise of populist parties in Europe. In addition to calling for stronger borders, however, these parties are invariably illiberal, making their rise a matter of serious concern for national security. After a brief video, Javier Morales-Ortiz, professor at Baldwin Wallace University, will lead a discussion and help to answer the complex questions surrounding populist Europe.

Nuclear Negotiations: Back to the Future?
Presentation by Jason Keiber, PhD
Thursday, October 10, 2019 at 7:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Nuclear weapons have not gone away, and the Trump administration has brought a new urgency to dealing with them. The president has met with Vladimir Putin and decertified the Obama nuclear deal with Iran. Can the art of the deal apply to stabilizing our nuclear future? After a brief video, Jason Keiber, assistant professor of International Studies and National Security at Baldwin Wallace University, will lead a discussion and help to answer the complex questions surrounding nuclear weapons.

The United States and Mexico: Partnership Tested
Presentation by Javier Morales-Ortiz, PhD
Thursday, October 24, 2019 at 7:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
The United States and Mexico have a long, intertwined history, with both countries prominently featured in each other’s politics and agendas. What impact will new leadership in both countries have on this partnership? After a brief video, Javier Morales-Ortiz, professor at Baldwin Wallace University, will lead a discussion and help answer the complex questions surrounding the relations between the United States and Mexico.
The Middle East: Regional Disorder
Presentation by Karl Kaltenthaler, PhD
Thursday, January 9, 2020 at 7:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
As the presidency of Donald J. Trump passes the halfway point, the Middle East remains a region in turmoil. The Trump administration has aligned itself with strongmen in Saudi Arabia, the United Arab Emirates and Egypt, who along with Israel, have a common goal of frustrating Iranian expansion. After a brief video, Karl Kaltenthaler, professor at Akron University and Case Western Reserve University, will lead a discussion and help answer the complex questions surrounding the Middle East.

Decoding U.S.-China Trade
Presentation by Paul Schroeder, PhD
Thursday, January 23, 2020 at 7:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Though arguably the most advanced economy in the world, the United States still uses centuries-old numbers to measure trade. This antiquated system mangles understanding of the US-China trade relationship, shrinking America’s true economic size, while swelling China’s. After a brief video, Paul Schroeder, professor at Case Western Reserve University, will lead a discussion and help to answer the complex questions surrounding US-China trade relations.

State of the State Department and Diplomacy
Presentation by TBA
Thursday, February 13, 2020 at 7:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Throughout the Trump presidency, many positions in the State Department have never been filled, and meetings with foreign leaders such as Kim Jong-un and Vladimir Putin have been undertaken with little advance planning. What effect are these changes having, and how will they affect ongoing relationships? After a brief video, a local expert will lead a discussion and help to answer some of the complex questions surrounding diplomacy.

Refugees and Global Migration
Presentation by Avidan Cover, PhD
Thursday, February 27, 2020 at 7:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Today, no countries have open borders. Every state in today’s global system has its own laws and policies about who is permitted to cross its borders, and how they will do so. Who determines whether someone is a refugee or a migrant? After a brief video, Avidan Cover, Professor of Law at Case Western Reserve University School and Director of the Institute for Global Security Law & Policy will lead a discussion and help to answer some of the complex questions surrounding global migration.
Space is the Place
During these programs, participants can engage with and be inspired by science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) in a culture of learning, exploration and fun. Youth Program—The Solar System in the Cleveland Museum of Natural History’s New Mobile Planetarium: For All Ages
Friday, November 8, 2019 at 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Launch into space in the Cleveland Museum of Natural History’s new mobile planetarium! We’ll view the Earth from space, float over Venus and land on Mars. Our tour takes us close-up to the gas giants, Jupiter and Saturn. After inspecting some of the many moons of the outer planets, we’ll see a sunrise on Pluto, and then drift by an icy comet. No registration is required; tickets will be distributed thirty minutes before the programs.
Youth Program—Star Clocks:
For Students in Third through Fifth Grade
Wednesday, December 11, 2019 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Our current concept of time is based on the motion and position of the sun, but how would you determine what time it is without clocks or the sun? Participants will explore the world before clocks, when people determined what the time was. Using simple materials, participants will construct their very own star clock, also known as a nocturnal, and discover how it can be used to map the changing of time by utilizing the stars as their guide.

Youth Program—Rovers and Robots:
For Students in Third through Fifth Grade
Wednesday, January 8, 2020 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Scientists at NASA’s Jet Propulsion Laboratory spend years working on and perfecting the complex robotic vehicles, like Opportunity and Curiosity, to send into space. Participants will explore the fascinating world of robotic rovers that are sent to the Moon and Mars. Just like the rover drivers for NASA, participants will utilize a Code and Go Mouse, learn how to program a robot to follow a series of directions to achieve their slated goal.

Youth Program—Strange New Planet:
For Students in Fifth through Eighth Grade
Wednesday, January 22, 2020 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Have you ever wondered what it takes to travel to a new planet? Participants will have the opportunity to do just that through a series of activities that will take them through the stages scientists use to investigate uncharted worlds. Through an analysis of the information gained, teams will begin working on a plan for future investigations. Your mission, should you accept it, is to complete the five stages of exploration on a planet that you create.

Youth Program—Eggstronuat Drop:
For Students in Third through Fifth Grade
Tuesday, February 11, 2020 and Wednesday, February 12, 2020 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
One of the most important aspects of planning a manned mission to space is the return trip. Scientists spend years working on various models to find the safest way to bring astronauts back home into Earth’s atmosphere. Now it’s your turn to engineer a solution! Using eggs as our astronauts, participants will design and construct a space capsule to safely deliver their eggstronaut to the library floor. Participants must be able to attend both sessions.

Enjoy an entertaining program of comedy magic that will keep you laughing while amazing you with a trunk of unbelievable feats.
Early Literacy
It’s important that we make sure our children start reading and listening to books from day one, and that they have a good time with books, are curious about reading and are motivated to learn to read for themselves. Strong reading skills form the basis of learning in all subjects. Lakewood Public Library provides the support you need to help your child get ready to read. Independent reading programs help young children practice early literacy skills.

No registration is required unless noted.

Main Library Activity Room
When children are given the opportunity to unleash their imagination and creativity, their confidence grows and their ability to excel in other educational areas develops. Students can join us for a one-day program of art activities designed to let them express their view of the world and create. They will create their own unique piece of art to take home and show off to family and friends.
Happy Chinese Programs
The Confucius Institute at Cleveland State University was established in 2008 as a way to further Chinese language and culture education in the Greater Cleveland area. Sponsored by the Office of Chinese Language International Council, or Hanban, the Confucius Institute works with local partners to directly support a multigenerational selection of programs and activities that help to strengthen the relationship between Cleveland and China.

Registration is required. Register online at lakewoodpubliclibrary.org/youth or call (216) 226-8275, ext. 140.

Happy Chinese: For Students in First through Sixth Grade
Wednesdays, September 11, 2019 - October 16, 2019 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Learn about Chinese characters, expressions, songs and culture in this six-week interactive program taught by visiting professor Shunqin Li of the Confucius Institute at Cleveland State University. The Confucius Institute offers courses in Chinese characters, Chinese calligraphy, Tai Chi, traditional Chinese medicine and Chinese language for all levels. These feel-good hands-on activities enhance the learning experience with fun and laughter.

Happy Chinese Workshop—Chinese Ink Painting Workshop: For Students in First through Sixth Grade
Wednesday, October 23, 2019 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Activity Room
Chinese painting is one of the oldest continuous artistic traditions in the world. Painting in the traditional style is known today in Chinese as guóhuà, meaning national or native painting. This traditional painting is done with a brush dipped in black ink. In this workshop you will learn how to make simple, traditional-style Chinese paintings with ink and brushes. At the end of the workshop, participants will be able to make one piece of work.

Happy Chinese Workshop—Chinese Paper-cutting Workshop: For Students in First through Sixth Grade
Wednesday, October 30, 2019 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Activity Room
Paper-cuts symbolize luck and happiness, and the art of Chinese paper-cutting is a traditional part of Chinese culture. It is one of the most beautiful and important treasures of Chinese art. In this workshop, participants will learn the basic folding and cutting skills of Chinese paper-cutting, be guided step-by-step to create their own artwork and will be able to take their work home or present them as gifts to family or friends.

Happy Chinese Celebration: For Family and Friends of Happy Chinese Program Participants
Wednesday, November 6, 2019 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Celebrations like the Chinese New Year, the Lantern Festival and the Dragon Boat Festival are extremely important in Chinese Culture because traditional festivals are one of the strongest bonds that reinforce the Chinese cultural identity. Family and friends of the participants of the Happy Chinese programs will have the opportunity to gather together at this celebration and enjoy the Chinese language, art and cultural knowledge the children have learned.
Special Children’s Programs at the Library

Lakewood Public Library has something that will interest everyone. Visit the Library for wide-ranging and thoughtful activities throughout the year. You can observe national and international days of service and peace, complete challenging scavenger hunts, join extraordinary read-aloud stories accompanied by crafts and activities, or create something new. The Library has a lot in store for children and their friends or caregivers this fall and winter.

Registration is required unless noted. Register online at lakewoodpubliclibrary.org/youth or call (216) 226-8275, ext. 140.

International Day of Peace—1,000 Paper Cranes:
For All Ages

Origami Paper Crane Folding Tutorial:
- Wednesday, September 4, 2019
- Saturday, September 21, 2019 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Final Origami paper cranes due by:
- Monday, September 30, 2019 at 6:00 p.m.

Main Library Multipurpose Room

Celebrate the International Day of Peace, Saturday, September 21, 2019 and Sadako Sasaki, a survivor of Hiroshima, by making origami cranes. After being diagnosed with leukemia from the radiation, Sasaki was inspired by the legend that one who made 1,000 origami cranes would be granted a wish. Every child who contributes a paper crane to the display will receive a raffle ticket for the chance to win a copy of Sadako and the Thousand Paper Cranes.

International Dot Day:
For Students in Kindergarten through Fifth Grade

Friday, September 13, 2019 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Main Library Activity Room

International Dot Day was created to encourage children to explore their creativity. The inspiration behind the event is the children’s book The Dot, written and illustrated by Peter H. Reynolds. After a reading of The Dot, participants will make a dot filled art project and contribute to a group dot art project that will be displayed in the Library. We will end this fun program by playing the ultimate dot game: Twister.

Count the Pumpkins Scavenger Hunt:
For All Ages

Tuesday, October 1, 2019 - Friday, November 15, 2019

Main Library Children’s and Youth Services

Children are invited to participate in a seasonal scavenger hunt by looking for pictures of pumpkins throughout the children’s area of the Library. Look for big pumpkins, little pumpkins, tall pumpkins, short pumpkins, orange pumpkins and white pumpkins! Turn in your completed scavenger hunt sheet to be entered in a drawing for a prize. Entry forms are available in the Main Library Children’s and Youth Services area. No registration is required.

Sew Your Own Library Tote:
For Patrons 8- Years and Older

Saturdays, October 19, 2019; December 14, 2019 and February 8, 2020 from 2:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Main Library Homework Room

The Library doesn’t give out plastic bags as part of our effort to go green and ensure that we are doing our best to respect the environment, but that doesn’t mean we want you to stop checking out more materials than you can carry. Create your own unique, stylish and reusable tote bag in this hands-on, no-experience-necessary sewing program. All materials are provided, and a master seamstress will be on hand to guide you through the process.
The Wizard of Oz Scavenger Hunt: For All Ages
Sunday, December 15, 2019 - Friday, January 31, 2020
Main Library Children’s and Youth Services
The Wizard of Oz movie is eighty years old! Celebrate this family classic by searching the children’s area for images from the story and interesting trivia about the characters and movie. Will you find Dorothy, the Tin Man, the Scarecrow and the Cowardly Lion? Turn in your completed scavenger hunt sheet to be entered in a drawing for a prize. Entry forms are available in the Main Library Children’s and Youth Services area. No registration is required.

Upcycling—Rags To Riches: For Students in Third through Eighth Grade
Monday, December 30, 2019 from 2:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Upcycling is taking an item that is no longer needed or wanted and giving it new life as something useful or creative. Transform old clothing into new treasures by turning an old t-shirt into strand necklaces, infinity scarves or a tote bag. Discover more about upcycling and then use your imagination to create your own work of art. Some materials will be provided, but students are required to bring an old t-shirt and sweater to use for upcycling projects.

Share the Dream—A Celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.: For School-Age Children
Monday, January 20, 2020 from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Celebrate the life of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. by attending this program. After stories and a song celebrating Dr. King’s life and legacy, participants will create cards that will be distributed to local nursing home residents. These cards will brighten the day of a senior citizen and provide children with a chance to serve others. Each child will take home a booklet about the life of Dr. King, a song sheet and a bookmark. No registration is required.

Inspire Your Heart with Art Day: For Students in Kindergarten through Fifth Grade
Friday, January 31, 2020 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Main Library Activity Room
Art is appreciated for all sorts of reasons. It has the power to change us, and to inspire our hearts. More than just a painting on a wall, art can be the music you hear or a sculpture you feel. Experience the arts in this after-school program with a variety of activities including listening to a story, personalizing a poem, completing a coloring project and making your own unique heart-filled creation. Come celebrate art and how it touches your heart!
YOUTH PROGRAMMING

Space is the Place
During these programs, children can engage with and be inspired by science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) in a culture of learning, exploration and fun. These programs are partly funded by a NASA@MyLibrary grant. Lakewood Public Library is one of seventy-five US public libraries to be awarded the NASA@MyLibrary grant, a STEM education initiative that increases and enhances STEM learning opportunities throughout the nation.

Registration is required. Register online at lakewoodpubliclibrary.org/youth or call (216) 226-8275, ext. 140.

Observe the Moon Night:
For Students in Third through Fifth Grade
Saturday, October 5, 2019 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Come celebrate International Observe the Moon Night (INOMN)! INOMN is held in the fall around the Moon’s first quarter because of the ideal conditions for afternoon and evening viewings in the Northern Hemisphere. We will take a tour of the Moon from inside the Library, examining its unique landscape with particular attention to the many craters that cover its surface. Participants will also have the opportunity to create their own impact craters.

Explore The Solar System in a Mobile Planetarium:
For All Ages
Friday, November 8, 2019 at 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Launch into space with the Cleveland Museum of Natural History’s new mobile planetarium! We’ll view the Earth from space, float over Venus and land on Mars. Our tour takes us close up to the gas giants, Jupiter and Saturn. After inspecting some of the many moons of the outer planets, we’ll see a sunrise on Pluto and then drift by an icy comet. No registration is required; tickets will be distributed thirty minutes before the programs.

Star Clocks:
For Students in Third through Fifth Grade
Wednesday, December 11, 2019 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Our current concept of time is based on the motion and position of the sun, but how would you determine what time it is without clocks or the sun? Participants will explore the world before clocks, when people determined what the time was without them. Using simple materials, participants will construct their very own star clock, also known as a nocturnal, and discover how it can be used to map the changing of time by utilizing the stars as their guide.
Rovers and Robots:
For Students in Third through Fifth Grade
Wednesday, January 8, 2020 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Scientists at NASA’s Jet Propulsion Laboratory spend years working on and perfecting complex robotic vehicles, like Opportunity and Curiosity, to send into space. Participants will explore the fascinating world of robotic rovers that are sent to the Moon and Mars. Just like the rover drivers for NASA, participants will utilize a Code and Go Mouse to learn how to program a robot to follow a series of directions to achieve their goal.

Strange New Planet: For Students in Fifth through Eighth Grade
Wednesday, January 22, 2020 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
Have you ever wondered what it takes to travel to a new planet? Participants will have the opportunity to do just that through a series of activities that will take them through the stages scientists use to investigate uncharted worlds. Through an analysis of the information gained, teams will begin working on a plan for future investigations. Your mission, should you accept it, is to complete the five stages of exploration on a planet that you create.

Eggstronaut Drop: For Students in Third through Fifth Grade
Tuesday, February 11, 2020 and Wednesday, February 12, 2020 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Main Library Multipurpose Room
One of the most important aspects of planning a manned mission to space is the return trip. Scientists spend years working on various models to find the safest way to bring astronauts back home into Earth’s atmosphere. Now it’s your turn to engineer a solution! Using eggs as our astronauts, participants will design and construct a space capsule to safely deliver their eggstronaut to the library floor. Participants must be able to attend both sessions.

For more space programming join us on Tuesday, October 8, 2019 at 6:30 p.m. in the Main Library Auditorium for a screening of the documentary Apollo 11.
Lakewood photographer and author Greg Murray will discuss his latest book, Pit Bull Heroes: 49 Underdogs with Resilience and Heart, on Thursday, October 17, 2019 at 7:00 p.m. in the Main Library Auditorium.
